Mansion Trooper Helps Save Heart Attack Victim

A woman in her early 70's from Edmonds collapsed this afternoon while on a tour of the Governor's Mansion. She collapsed in front of the WSP security office. Trooper Derek Anderson called for Aid while Trooper Mathew Andersen administered AED (electric shock) and used CPR for approximately 5 minutes until the Olympia Fire Department arrived.

The woman survived and was transported by The Olympia Fire Department Medic Unit to St. Peters Hospital.

For more detailed information, call Sergeant John-Paul Sager on his cell phone, 507-1397.
